

COMMUNICATION & GIVING

- Alumni Newsletter, seasonally. Be sure we have your current address and email.
- School Website Alumni Page, <https://www.mountainviewacademy.org/who-we-are/mva-alumni-association.cfm>
- Facebook, "Mountain View Academy Alumni" is a great source for timely announcements and great memories.
- Alumni President, Rose Ecklund-Shimizu, at: alumni@mountainviewacademy.org.

Mountain View Academy wouldn't exist without support from Alumni. Your gifts to MVA help many students receive a quality Christian education that they wouldn't otherwise have.

There are many ways people give:

- Through consistent, regular gifts to the Worthy Student Fund.
- Through large gifts (including stocks) to our invested Endowment fund.
- By participating with meaningful gifts to our Capital Improvement Fund.

We invite you to make a contribution toward the following special projects:

- Gym Redwood Siding $20,000
- Chapel Projector and Classroom Smartboard $40,000
- Gym Floor Covering $15,000

ALUMNI SPEAKERS

Rob Colon '79

Rob was born and raised in the Bay Area and attended both Miramonte Elementary and Mountain View Academy. Then he took a detour and went on a "walk on the wild side," playing in local bands, "Jonny Law" & "Shotgun Jonny."

After a powerful conversion in 1991, Rob and his wife Sandi went into ministry. Rob and Sandi have worked in Russia, New Zealand, Australia, Lord Howe Island, Boston, and the Seattle area. He has been on the pastoral staff of Sunnyvale SDA Church since 2004, and is currently the Lead Pastor.

Rob enjoys cycling, fishing, backpacking, golf, and riding his Harley.

Sivasa Laupati '99

Sivasa credits his continued love for writing to Mr. Andres' English classes and the creases in his slacks and sleeves to Mrs. Lynch's Home Economics class.

He went on to complete his BA in Religious Studies from La Sierra University and his Master's degree in Chaplaincy from Loma Linda University. He met his wife, Cecilia, during his time at LLU.

Sivasa is an associate chaplain at the Adventist Health Rideout Hospital in Northern California. Outside of chaplaincy, Sivasa is an artist, writer, lyricist, published musician, and a singer with the Revelation of Hope Singers and his personal music ministry band, 'Alamai.

He enjoys spending time with his wife, being outdoors, and talking with his nieces, Lala, Meleane, and Bella.
